MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Felt Wretched Until He Started To Take "Fruit-a-lives"

594 CHAMPLAIN ST., MONTREAL.

"For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Dizzy Spells, and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen. A friend advised 'Fruit-a-lives' and from the outset, they did me good. After the first box, I felt I was getting well and I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-lives' is the only medicine that helped me." LOUIS LABRIE.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ogdensburg, N. Y.

How to stop dandruff and loss of hair with Resinol

Here is a simple, inexpensive treatment that will generally stop dandruff and scalp itching, and keep the hair thick, live and lustrous:

Straiten, spread the hair apart and rub a little Resinol Ointment into the scalp gently, with the tip of the finger. Repeat this until the whole scalp has been treated. Next morning, shampoo thoroughly with Resinol Soap and water. Work the creamy Resinol lather well into the scalp. Rinse with gradually cooler water, the last water being cold. All dandruff will fall out. Resinol Soap and Ointment.

BETHEL

Jerry Fifield Died Wednesday Morning—Funeral This Afternoon.

The funeral of Jerry Fifield, aged 68 years, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with interment at Cherry Hill cemetery, Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating. Mr. Fifield's death occurred yesterday morning at 3:30 o'clock after a lingering illness, exactly three months after the death of his son, Frank. His early life was passed in northern New York, where he worked 20 years on the railroad. Then with his wife and children he came to Pittsfield, where some of his people had preceded him. Five years later he moved to Williamstown, where he lived 10 years, doing a general trucking business, as he continued to do after coming here seven years ago, as long as his health allowed. He is survived by his wife, whom he married 47 years ago and has taken excellent care of him during his hard illness, by four children, Lyman Fifield of East St. Louis, Ill., Harley Fifield of Newport, N. H., Mrs. J. H. Whitney and Mrs. H. W. Mentley of this village, and by six brothers and sisters, O. A. Fifield and G. A. Fifield and Mrs. John Phillips of Pittsfield, Alvah Fifield of Chittenden, Mrs. Daniel Curran of Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. Thomas Downey of Nashua, N. H.

Football practice yesterday brought out nearly 20 aspirants to membership on one or another of two local teams from the high and grammar schools, which it is proposed to organize because of the difficulty of arranging for games with other schools.

Fifield's farm, breaking down a board fence, snapping a stone post about two inches thick, and rolled sideways down a bank. Neither Mrs. Spaulding, who was driving, nor her husband, who sat beside her, was injured.

Alex Abbott of Minneapolis, Minn., a member of Co. E, 4th Vermont regiment, one of the few remaining Bethel soldiers of the Civil war, is visiting his nephew, R. A. Abbott.

Mrs. E. E. Perry returned yesterday to Barre after visiting at P. L. Martin's. John Alvin of the United States navy, representing the Montpelier station, is here.

Mrs. Mary Emery and Miss Stella Hull are in Boston.

Mrs. F. E. Martell is in the Boston millinery market.

Hugh Batcheller and his friend, Raymond Hunter, are here for a visit from Waltham, Mass.

Transformers are being installed this week at the Bethel Chrome Tanning company's plant, and motors probably will be put in next week, with a view to the use of electricity for motive power. The boilers still will be needed for heating and drying purposes and for the supply of hot water.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blake were in Randolph Monday to attend the funeral of Edward Alvord.

Vermont guests yesterday at the Bascom house included A. P. Maxham of Woodstock and C. C. Clark of St. Albans and at the inn, G. A. Wilkinson and C. M. Hawes of Barre and W. R. Rowell of Fair Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Joslyn have returned to Bridgewater after a visit in town, taking with them Miss Nellie Blake for a visit.

EAST BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Godfrey have returned home after an extended visit to sisters of Mrs. Godfrey in the eastern part of the state.

R. H. Buck, cornetist, and H. V. Allen, ex-regimental drum major of the U. S. Army, assisted the Randolph band last Friday for the send-off of the selected men from Orange county to the Ayer, Mass., training camp.

Leonard Paine of the U. S. navy, who has been sick in the hospital at Norfolk, Va., has suffered a relapse and is confined to his bed. He was to be furloughed about this time, if able to travel, and intended to visit his old home friends here.

Chester Brown died very suddenly at his home in this village Sept. 5. The funeral was held at his late residence last Friday and burial was in the family lot at Brantree.

Miss Margaret Keefe from Waterbury is the teacher in the village school, which began the fall term Sept. 10, and Miss Louise Waterman of Royton is the teacher at Spooner's Corners.

George and Fred Newell have returned to their respective homes at Bristol, Conn., and Bradford, N. H. Mrs. Brown, their mother, accompanied Fred to his home, closing her house here.

Arrangements have been made so that those who wish to secure the Daily Times may do so by application to the post-office.

Frank Wuden, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Wuden and son of Bridgewater and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and daughter, Hazel, of Randolph, were at M. D. Brown's Sunday.

AFTER FOUR YEARS

Barre Testimony Remains Unshaken

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Barre story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Frank E. Adams, 47 Elm street, Barre, says: "For some time I was troubled by my kidneys. My back ached, and I had pains in my sides. Doan's Kidney Pills promptly cured me, and I highly recommend them."

Mr. Adams gave the above statement on Aug. 20, 1912, and on Nov. 8, 1916, he added: "I still continue to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have lots of faith in them."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Adams has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

HARDWICK

One of Hardwick Most Prominent Citizens and Civil War Veteran, Dead.

Lieut. George W. Bridgman, aged 77, years, a prominent citizen of the town and a veteran of the Civil war, died at his home on Wakefield street in this village Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, after an illness of about two weeks. The funeral was held at his late home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. G. H. Redding officiating, and interment was made in the Main street cemetery.

Mr. Bridgman was born in this town Feb. 21, 1840, and was practically a life-long resident of the town, having been born on the old well known Bridgman homestead, son of Dorman and Achsah Bridgman. He enlisted in the Civil war May 7, 1861, as sergeant in Co. F, 2d Vermont infantry. He served three years and two months and when discharged held the position of 2d lieutenant. He was an active member of Ellsworth post, G. A. R., and held every office except that of quartermaster and surgeon. He was always prominent in town affairs, and for years was selectman, and at the time of his death was a member of the board of library trustees and also held a position on the board of trustees of the state soldiers' home. He also had held other town offices.

He leaves, besides his wife, Helen M., a son, Edward G. Bridgman, two grandchildren, a brother, Dorman, two sisters, Mrs. W. H. H. Connor of Burlington and Mrs. F. J. Underwood of St. Louis. To the sorrowing relatives goes the sympathy of the community. Mr. Bridgman will be greatly missed in a great many ways in the community.

A daughter, Leah Isabelle, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rodriguez Sept. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dupaw have stored their household goods and have gone to Barre, where Mr. Dupaw has employment.

The three part vaudeville entertainment given by the Roeca camp fire girls under the personal direction of Mrs. Warren Mack, at the opera house last evening, deserved a much larger attendance than it received, but those that were present were more than repaid for going. The program was a good one, and each and every part was taken in a manner that showed persistent training.

Fred Hitchcock, a regular in the U. S. army, was home from New Haven, Conn., the first of the week, at which place his company is stationed at present.

Mrs. James Parks of Burlington has been a guest of friends here this week.

Miss Irene Carroll went to Burlington the first of the week to resume her school work at St. Mary's academy.

W. M. Clark is spending a few weeks in Meredith, N. H., with relatives.

Street Commissioner Larrabee is doing an excellent job of resurfacing South Main street.

Mrs. B. F. Brown of Woodsville, N. H., is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Mack.

Miss Lucy Mack has gone to Haverhill, Mass., where she will teach school the coming year.

Miss Tia Hoyt of Morrisville visited friends in town over Sunday.

Mrs. E. R. Fletcher returned a few days since from an extended visit with relatives in Randolph.

Albert Lloyd, the undertaker, is spending the week at his home in Poultney.

Mrs. G. H. Townsend and daughter, Miss Lucile, returned Tuesday from a visit in Barre.

Each Town Its Own Advertisement.

In these days when thousands of people are traveling through the country in motor cars every town is its own advertisement. We have often heard the complaint made that a poor impression is gained of almost every town or city by a view from a car window. This is true. The fronts of business blocks are seen, the attractive residential sections are in some distant background and the surroundings of the railroad stations usually present a dirty appearance. But the automobilist goes into the very heart of the town, and if he likes the outlook in the business section he will ask about the special attractions and beauty spots of the community and hunt them up. If a man's schedule is limited and he only "passes" through towns like Bethel, Me., or North Conway, N. H., he gets an impression which is appealing and he will inwardly register a wish to go back to those pleasant scenes where the people have pride enough in their streets, buildings and homes to keep them in attractive condition.—Brattleboro Reformer.
